ORDER

THIS MATTER was heard by the Board of Assessment Appeals on November 30, 2010, Louesa Maricle and James R. Meurer presiding. Petitioner was not represented at the hearing. Respondent was represented by George Rosenberg, Esq.

The subject property is described as follows:

Business Personal Property located at
6782 South Potomac Street, Centennial, Colorado
Arapahoe County Schedule No. 27394-66343-001

Petitioner is protesting the tax years 2005 and 2006 actual value of the subject property.

Petitioner did not attend the hearing or appear by telephone.

Respondent moved to dismiss the appeal on the grounds that Petitioner failed to appear in person or by telephone.

ORDER:

The petition is dismissed.

APPEAL:

If the decision of the Board is against Petitioner, Petitioner may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review according to the Colorado appellate rules and the provisions of Section 24-4-106(11), C.R.S. (commenced by the filing of a notice of appeal with the Court of Appeals within forty-five days after the date of the service of the final order entered).

If the decision of the Board is against Respondent, Respondent, upon the recommendation of the Board that it either is a matter of statewide concern or has resulted in a significant decrease in the total valuation for assessment of the county wherein the property is located, may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review according to the Colorado appellate rules and the provision of Section 24-4-106(11), C.R.S. (commenced by the filing of a notice of appeal with the Court of Appeals within forty-five days after the date of the service of the final order entered).

In addition, if the decision of the Board is against Respondent, Respondent may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review of alleged procedural errors or errors of law when Respondent alleges procedural errors or errors of law by the Board.

If the Board does not recommend its decision to be a matter of statewide concern or to have resulted in a significant decrease in the total valuation for assessment of the county in which the property is located, Respondent may petition the Court of Appeals for judicial review of such questions.

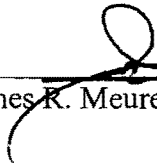

Section 39-10-114.5(2), C.R.S.

DATED/MAILED this 17th day of February 2011.
