To find additional information on Operator Certification and training units check the Colorado Water and Wastewater Facility Operator Certification Board website at www.cdphe.state.co.us/op/ocb/index.html and the Operator Certification Program Office website at <http://www.ocpoweb.com>. In addition to the classes listed in this calendar, the Colorado Environmental Training Center (CETC) at Red Rocks Community College (RRCC) in Lakewood offers degree courses in water quality management. Additionally, cross-connection control and backflow prevention courses are also offered through RRCC's Rocky Mountain Education Center—Region 8 OSHA Training Institute. Also, through the RMWEA, online self-paced training courses are available - check it out at the www.rmwea.org website.
